RE: KLAN ORGANIZATIONS
CINCINNATI, OHIO

On July 26, 1964, and July 29, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on Sunday afternoon, July 26, 1964, members of the Dixie Klans (DK), Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (KKKK, Inc.) a special meeting was held at 2523 Glass Street, East Chattanooga, Tennessee. Shortly after 1:00 p.m., fifteen individuals, all reported to be from Cincinnati, Ohio and vicinity, arrived at the headquarters of DK, KKKK, Inc. At approximately 1:30 p.m., other members arrived, including about twenty to twenty-five individuals from Atlanta and Tucker, Georgia and vicinity.

[redacted] of the above organization, and an individual believed to be James R. Venable, Chairman of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), and some of the individuals from Cincinnati and vicinity had private discussions. It was announced that the purpose of this meeting was to naturalize certain individuals visiting from Cincinnati, Ohio, into a klan organization. On this occasion, four individuals from Cincinnati, Ohio and vicinity were naturalized. Among these four individuals was one woman, who was being naturalized into the klan organization, supposedly for a klan auxiliary in the vicinity of Cincinnati, Ohio. Seven other individuals, reportedly from Cincinnati, Ohio and vicinity, were naturalized into a klan organization, name not known, approximately one hour after the first four were naturalized.

ENCLOSURE

This informant advised it was learned through general conversation that individuals visiting from Cincinnati, Ohio, were to form their own klan organization, name never mentioned, in the vicinity of Cincinnati, Ohio, and that they would also join the NKKKK.

Informant advised he learned later that the reason for the two separate ceremonies was that the four individuals who were first naturalized were not on friendly terms with the other seven individuals who were naturalized at a later time. Informant advised although fifteen individuals from Ohio were present, only eleven were naturalized into klan organization. Informant could furnish no information regarding mode of travel of these individuals or their identity.

This informant advised the members from Cincinnati, Ohio, reported that they previously had a klan organization in Cincinnati a number of years before but had disbanded. These individuals now plan to begin organizing a new klan group with headquarters in the vicinity of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Until approximately June 28, 1964, there was no indication of any klan activity or organization in the Cincinnati, Ohio area derived from sources in Cincinnati or from other field division sources.

WLW-TV carried a program on the evening of June 28, 1964, alleging that the KKK held a meeting and burned a cross on that date.

Harold A. Leonard, Reporter, WLW-TV, 140 West Ninth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised Special Agents of the FBI, on June 29, 1964, that he had received four or five telephone calls at the television station on June 26, 1964. According to Leonard, the caller had asked if he was a reporter for the station and asked if he was interested in a news "scoop." Leonard stated it was his belief that the caller was a "crank" but after the fourth or fifth call, Leonard requested additional information from the caller. The unidentified caller told Leonard that the KKK was planning a meeting on June 28, 1964, and if the television station was interested in pictures, further plans and arrangements could be made. The caller advised he would call again at 6:30 p.m. on June 28, 1964, and give directions at that time.

Leonard stated that he and Eugene Neuber, photographer, WLW-TV, arrived at the television station at approximately 6:00 p.m. on June 28, 1964. They received a call from this same unidentified caller at 6:15 p.m., at which time the caller asked if he was the party waiting for the 6:30 call. At this time, the caller advised he would call back, and he did so at approximately 6:25 p.m. Leonard stated that the caller was a man who seemed to have an accent similar to the local "hillbilly accents." Leonard stated he was reasonably sure that the same man had made all of the above telephone calls.

Leonard stated the caller gave him instructions to proceed to a given address in the Cincinnati, Ohio area. Leonard would not furnish any details of this address or the area where he went. Leonard advised that he and Neuber drove to the address given by the caller and this trip took about 25 minutes. When they arrived, a white car, make unknown, was parked across the street and completely blocked all traffic. Five men wearing white hoods were in the immediate vicinity of the automobile. Each man was carrying either a shotgun or carbine. The license tags of the car were covered with cloth. One of the men told them to park their car and this group of five men escorted Leonard and Neuber into a house.

Leonard stated that when he arrived inside the house, he counted fifteen men, fourteen of whom were wearing white hoods and one man was wearing a red hood. He stated he and Neuber were not allowed to leave the room but they could hear women's voices in the rear of the house. He stated he did not recognize any of the voices of the hooded men as being identical to the voice of the man who had called him at the station.

Leonard stated the man with the red hood was the leader. This leader told him that they had been having a meeting since 1:00 p.m., and approximately 100 men had been in attendance. The leader of the group indicated that this was a meeting of the KKK.

[redacted] confidential source, who has not furnished sufficient information to evaluate his reliability, advised a Special Agent that he observed a film of a local KKK meeting on WLW-TV at 10:00 p.m. on June 28, 1964. This source stated he believed the man wearing the dark KKK hood was one Clarence Brandenburg as the voice sounded similar to Mr. Brandenburg's with whom the source has spoken on many occasions. The source stated he has known Mr. Brandenburg [redacted]

[redacted] confidential source stated [redacted] has been connected with the National Association for the Advancement of White People (NAAWP), but he has broken with this organization and since that time has been attempting to set up a group of his own while continually promoting various extremist ideas and causes against the Negroes' civil rights movement and the Civil Rights Bill specifically. The source stated that in [redacted] told the source [redacted]

[redacted] The source stated [redacted] often contacts radio and television stations in the area in an effort to obtain additional publicity for his point of view. [redacted] source stated that on the evening of June 26, 1964, about 9:00 p.m., he observed that [redacted] a meeting of some sort at [redacted] Arlington Heights, Ohio. Between eight and twelve men attended this meeting and they arrived in five cars. The source stated that in his opinion [redacted] is the type of person who can become so involved in the civil rights fight that he might become violent and could possibly commit homicide if he were stirred up sufficiently.

[redacted] Arlington Heights, Ohio, advised Special Agents of the FBI on June 30, 1964, that he knew nothing about the KKK meeting on June 28, 1964, other than what he had observed on television. He denied any knowledge of KKK activities. He stated he was [redacted] the newspaper published by the NAAWP, which is an organization formed to unify the white people to vote for issues advantageous to the white race. He stated he is no longer a member of the NAAWP.

[redacted] stated he attempted to join the National States Rights Party (NSRP), but he was never allowed to join as apparently someone in the organization did not trust him. He stated he is also interested in the American Nazi Party (ANP), but he is not a member.

Characterizations of the National States Rights Party and the American Nazi Party are attached to this communication.

On August 4, 1964, [redacted] [redacted] Arlington Heights, Ohio, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that he was a white supremacist, that he is not an integrationist, and strongly does not believe in race mixing. He denied being a member of any organized group to promote violence and stated he would not consider the use of violence to further his political beliefs. He stated if anyone has a warrant for his arrest that will be fine with him because he has not broken any laws of any kind and he will positively furnish no information since he would plead under the Fifth Amendment just like the communists do.

On July 28, 1964, and August 6, 1964, [redacted] [redacted] of the NAAWP, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that he is positive [redacted] any klan organization in Cincinnati, Ohio, is [redacted] because he observed a film of a local KKK meeting on WLW-TV at 10:00 p.m., June 28, 1964, and the sound of the [redacted] was identical to the voice of [redacted]. [redacted] said he has spoken to [redacted] on many occasions and knows his voice sound. [redacted] said he has been acquainted with Brandenburg for [redacted]

[redacted] also advised that [redacted] and approximately eight other individuals travelled south recently to get some type of degree from the KKK. He could not furnish the exact location of the meeting or the identity of the persons who travelled south. He would not identify his source of information. [redacted] described [redacted] as being mentally ill, emotionally unstable, and the type of person who "blows up easily." [redacted] said for some reason, possibly the fact that he is mentally unstable, a degree was not given to Brandenburg in the south and he became so enraged that he returned to Cincinnati, Ohio.

On August 7, 1964, the "Cincinnati Enquirer," a Cincinnati, Ohio daily newspaper publication, had the following subheadline article appearing on page one: KU KLUX KLAN LEADER HELD UNDER OLD LAW. Pertinent information contained in this article is as follows:

Clarence Brandenburg, 48, operator of Valley Teletronics, 618 Mill Street, Arlington Heights, Ohio, was arrested in his shop by Cincinnati and suburban police officials.

He was accused under an old Ohio State law with advocating criminal syndicalism and violating a state law which states that "no person shall unite with two or more others to commit a misdemeanor while wearing white caps, masks or other disguises."

Brandenburg was reported to have admitted KKK membership stating, "I am an imperial officer in the national KKK and proud of it."

Police, in searching his business and home, found a bright red hood with eye holes, three loaded weapons, numerous KKK literature, and a list of KKK members in Cincinnati. They also found books and periodicals dealing with militant right-wing organizations.

The list of members, which included about twenty names, was in a small coat-pocket memo pad, officers said.

Brandenburg was quoted to have said, "Jewism and Communism are back of all this, on my death, I will not make a statement - I will take the Fifth Amendment. The Communists do it and I can do it, too."

Brandenburg was taken to Cincinnati Police Headquarters and posted $2,500.00 bond on each charge. He is to appear in Cincinnati Municipal Court today.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957 issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. the UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958 issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party," (NSRP) reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue Number 19, dated June, 1960, of "The Thunderbolt," announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that Edward R. Fields, the Information Director of the NSRP, is the individual who "runs the NSRP."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

Spot checks by Bureau Agent also met with negative results in connection with locating any cars other than those from Georgia and local Chattanooga, Tennessee, cars. The only license number obtained during this spot check by Bureau Agent of out-of-state automobiles were set forth in referenced teletype.

It is noted that 15 individuals, reportedly from Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity, and approximately 20-25 from Atlanta and Tucker, Georgia, and vicinity, together with a large number of members from Chattanooga, Tennessee, and Rossville, Georgia, vicinity, who were members of the DK, KKKK, Inc., were present. Approximately 75 persons in all were present during the afternoon of July 26, 1964, at the headquarters of the DK, KKKK, Inc. Due to the large number present, it was extremely difficult for [redacted] to obtain detailed description concerning persons present and also record the names of the individuals from Chattanooga, Tennessee, who were present. Informant reported that the visiting members from Georgia, as well as Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity, were very obvious in the fact that they did not introduce themselves, did not furnish their names, and it was very difficult to try to identify any of the visiting individuals.

The following is a general description of some of the visiting members as well as a list of the members from Chattanooga, Tennessee, and vicinity, who were present at this meeting:

Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity:

Among the first four individuals who were naturalized into the klan organization was one woman, described as a white female, 150-160 lbs., 5'7", blond, approximately 20 years of age, large build, but not considered fat, good-looking. This woman was accompanied by a white male, approximately 55 years of age, 5'7", 145 lbs., fair complexion, black hair, slender build. Also initiated with these two individuals were two individuals of similar description, described as both approximately 40 years of age, 5'7", 140 lbs., black hair, slender build, fair complexion. Informant advised in the seven individuals who were initiated on the second time from Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity, the majority of them met the same general description was the last two men described above, 40 years of age, 5'7", 140 lbs., black hair, slender build. He stated among this group was one individual white male, early 40's, approximately 6'2", very slender build, black hair, with streaks of grey, fair complexion. Informant was unable to furnish any more detailed description concerning the above and could not furnish a description of the four other individuals who were not naturalized into a klan organization. He did report that among the 15, only one woman was present.

Tucker, Georgia, and Atlanta Georgia, and Vicinity
Representing the NKKKK

JAMES R. VENABLE

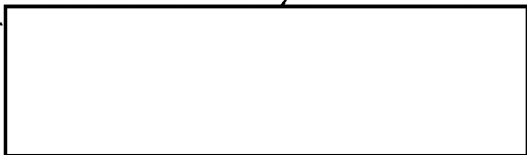

One individual described as a white male, 40-45 years of age, 5'8", 145 lbs., black hair, receding, moustache, medium complexion, appeared to be one of the leaders representing the NKKKK. This individual took part in the ceremony of the naturalization of the above two groups, in that he escorted the new members into the closed meeting. Informant advised that there were three women visitors from Tucker, Georgia, and vicinity. He described them as follows: white female, 50 years of age, 5'7", 120 lbs., tall, slender, Tucker, Georgia, reportedly bookkeeper or businesswoman from Tucker, Georgia. This individual reportedly previously seen by informant at a meeting at Tucker, Georgia, in April, 1964; white female, 50 years of age, 5'6", 200 lbs. or more, short, extremely heavy build, black short hair, possibly from Tucker, Georgia; white female, 30 years of age, slender build, 5'5", 130 lbs., medium length black hair. Informant was unable to furnish any detailed description concerning the other individuals from Tucker and Atlanta, Georgia, and vicinity.

The informant advised, that if shown photographs of individuals from Tucker, Georgia, Atlanta, Georgia, and Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity, he feels he could possibly identify some of the visiting individuals.

Informant advised the following members of the DK, KKKK, Inc., were present at the above-described meeting:

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
RACIAL MATTERS

On July 26, 1964, and July 29, 1964, A Confidential Source advised that the Dixie Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (DK, KKKK, Inc.) has national headquarters located 2523 Glass Street, East Chattanooga, Tennessee. [redacted]

[redacted] of this organization. This organization has one large active klavern which also uses the same two-story building at the above address. The second floor of this building is for the sole purpose of holding closed klan meetings. The first floor is a recreation hall, pool table, etc., and one private office for klan leaders.

This informant advised that on Sunday afternoon, July 26, 1964, members of the DK, KKKK, Inc., were advised a special meeting would be held on that afternoon. At approximately 1:00 p.m., several members of the DK, KKKK, Inc., Chattanooga, Tennessee, began to gather at the above recreation hall. Shortly after 1:00 p.m., fifteen individuals, all reported to be from Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity, arrived at the headquarters of the DK, KKKK, Inc. They reportedly had been having lunch at the Dollar House located in the 2400 block of Glass Street, East Chattanooga, Tennessee, prior to coming to the meeting hall. At approximately 1:30, several members of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan from Tucker, Georgia, and Atlanta, Georgia, and vicinity, began arriving in cars. Approximately 20-25 individuals from Atlanta and Tucker, Georgia, and vicinity, arrived. All of the above associated and discussed informally klan activities with the various members of the DK, KKKK, Inc., who were in the recreation hall.

Subject as given

[redacted] and an individual believed to be JAMES R. VENABLE, chairman of the NKKKK, and some of the individuals from Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity, had private discussions. Shortly after this, a meeting was called on the second floor of the klan building and the meeting was under [redacted]

It was announced that the purpose of this meeting was to naturalize certain individuals visiting from Cincinnati, Ohio, into a klan organization. Informant advised that the initiation was a little irregular in that the exact name of the klan organization was not mentioned and the names of the members were not mentioned to those present. The naturalization ceremony took place with DK, KKKK, Inc., officers handling the majority of the naturalization ceremony. On this occasion, four individuals from Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity were naturalized. Among these four individuals was one woman, who was being naturalized into the klan organization, supposedly for a klan auxiliary in the vicinity of Cincinnati, Ohio. Immediately following the naturalization, the meeting was disbanded and all members described above returned to the recreation room where they again had an informal visit with members of the DK, KKKK, Inc. and visiting members.

b7D

Again, [redacted] and the individual believed to be VENABLE, and other individuals from Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity, had private discussions and approximately one hour later another closed meeting was scheduled on the second floor of this building. On this occasion, naturalization was similar to the one that had previously occurred, approximately one hour before, and on this occasion seven other individuals, reportedly from Cincinnati, Ohio, and vicinity, were naturalized into a klan organization, name not known. Immediately following this naturalization, the meeting was again adjourned and all present returned to the recreation hall for informal association.

This informant advised it was learned through general conversation that individuals visiting from Cincinnati, Ohio, were to form their own klan organization, name never mentioned, in the vicinity of Cincinnati, Ohio, and that they would also join the NKKKK. However, informant advised that at no time during the above meeting or during the informal association in the recreation room did he receive any information of a charter being issued by VENABLE, [redacted] or any of the other officials of any klan organization.

Informant advised he learned later that the reason for the two ceremonies was that the four individuals who were first naturalized were not on friendly terms with the other seven individuals who were naturalized at a later time. Informant advised that although fifteen individuals from Ohio were present, only eleven were naturalized into klan organization. Informant could furnish no information regarding mode of travel of these individuals. He reported all of the above individuals from Ohio departed from the klan hall approximately 4:30 p.m., July 26, 1964.

Informant advised that the individuals from Tucker, Georgia, and Atlanta, Georgia, represented the NKKKK, and were still at the DK, KKKK, Inc. headquarters at approximately 5:30 p.m. However, at that time they were preparing to return to Atlanta, Georgia, and vicinity. Informant advised no other business was reportedly transpired at this meeting, which was known to the rank and file members. Informant could furnish no information regarding private conversation between VENABLE and [redacted] and other individuals from Cincinnati, Ohio.

DIXIE KLANS, KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
(TENNESSEE)

Confidential Sources advised it was announced at a meeting of Klavern #1, U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., at Chattanooga, Tennessee, on September 17, 1957, that some former leaders of Klavern #1 and their close associates had been banished from U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., during the preceding week.

Sources advised those individuals who were banished formed a new klan organization known as Dixie Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., with headquarters in Masonic Hall, 2523 Glass Street, East Chattanooga, Tennessee. A general welfare charter was secured from the State of Tennessee on October 21, 1957, which charter lists some of the purposes of the organization as freedom of speech and association, rejection of forced integration, preservation of the Constitutions of the United States and of Tennessee, and preservation of the sovereignty of each state.

On April 26, 1962, Source stated that the Dixie Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., has active klaverns in Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, and Virginia. This informant advised attempts were made to organize klaverns of this organization in Arkansas, Mississippi, Florida, South Carolina, and North Carolina, but the attempts at organization in these states have not been successful.

A Confidential Source advised during the fall of 1960 that a "den" of Klavern #1, DK, KKKK, Inc., Chattanooga, Tennessee, consisting of [redacted] including [redacted] of DK, KKKK, Inc. [redacted] of Klavern #1, Chattanooga, Tennessee (the local chapter president) and others, all listed as members of Klavern #1, DK, KKKK, Inc., Chattanooga, Tennessee, during July, August, and September, 1960, were reportedly responsible for five bombings of residences of Hamilton County, Tennessee, during July and August, 1960. Some of these members and alternates of "den" held closed meetings and discussed bombings and other acts of violence. These meetings were reportedly closed and rank and file members of this organization unaware of such. All reported members and alternates of "den" interviewed during another investigation, denied knowledge of bombings or acts of violence, denied knowledge of "den" of DK, KKKK, Inc., and majority admitted membership in DK, KKKK, Inc.

Sources have reported as late as September, 1963, that for the past eighteen months or more, none of the DK, KKKK, Inc., members or leaders, including [redacted] have discussed any acts of violence. In fact, during this period 1962-63, Negroes have demonstrated at Chattanooga, Tennessee, seeking integration of public and municipal facilities. In addition to these demonstrations some of the public schools, Chattanooga, have been integrated during the fall of 1962 and the fall of 1963. During these demonstrations and the integration of these schools, [redacted] and other DK, KKKK, Inc., leaders at closed meetings of this organization, and on an individual basis, have instructed members of this organization to stay away from areas of demonstrations by Negroes and schools where integration was occurring, not to participate in any demonstrations or attempt to interfere with any Negro demonstrations, not to be seen in such areas, not to commit any acts of violence or advocate any acts of violence or become engaged in any arguments over above matters.

b7C

From October 1960 to September 1963, no acts of violence have occurred at Chattanooga and vicinity. During this period DK, KKKK, Inc., has continued to operate as an active organization and during the same period all municipal facilities, Chattanooga, have been integrated, the majority of public facilities, including theatres, restaurants, motels, hotels and other facilities have been integrated, plus integration of schools during the fall of 1962 and the fall of 1963. All have been accepted peacefully with no demonstrations or acts of violence or discussion of acts of violence by DK, KKKK, Inc., members.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2-5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] source advised in March, 1964, that several meetings of Klan groups were held during the period 1960 to 1963 in an effort to unite the Klan groups under a single leadership.

The organization was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1963, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order."

[redacted] source advised in December, 1963, that the organization had issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-Foreign born.

[redacted] source advised in August, 1964, that the organization has a headquarters in Tucker, Georgia, and the day-to-day operations are under the direction of JAMES R. VENABLE, Chairman.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
(NKKKK)

A characterization of the London National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is attached.

An advertisement appeared in the "Atlanta Constitution", an Atlanta, Georgia, newspaper, on September 3, 1964, inviting the public to attend a Ku Klux Klan rally to be held September 5, 1964, at 7:30 p.m. at Stone Mountain, Georgia.

On September 6, 1964, an article appeared in the "Atlanta Journal-Constitution", an Atlanta newspaper, indicating that 600 Ku Klux Klansmen gathered Saturday night (September 5, 1964) in a Stone Mountain field, burned a cross and were told by their leader, James Venable, Atlanta attorney, that the Klan now politically controls nine States of the Union.

Mr. Venable stressed that the Klan does not preach the use of violence except in self-defense and that "Our weapons are the boycott and the ballot". Regarding the acquittal on Friday, September 4, 1964, of two Klansmen charged with the murder of Negro Lemuel Penn near Athens, Georgia, Mr. Venable said, "You'll never be able to convict a white man that killed a Nigger what encroaches on the white race of the South."

A Louisiana spokesman estimated that the Klan now has more than 10,000 members in his State. Another Klansman, from Ohio, predicted that in five years his State will have doubled the number it had in the 1940's, some 45,000.

~~The~~^{AN} informant advised on September 9, 1964, that he attended the rally held on September 5, 1964, and that 26 States were represented. He said that many of the 20 speakers advocated resorting to whatever means and methods are necessary for the preserving of white supremacy.

Informant said that he saw one group of six men arrive in an automobile and believed that they were all armed. During the rally, which was held in a field, someone in the crowd mentioned there was a Negro on the road near the rally and this group of men left. Informant added, however, that this report was false and that no incidents developed during the rally.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
(NKKKK)

A source advised that on May 22, 1960, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the Klan's unity of effort and activities to establish a National Fund, and a National Secretary, and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Hyksos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2-5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] source advised in March, 1964, that several meetings of Klan groups were held during the period 1960 to 1963 in an effort to unite the Klan groups under a single leadership.

The organization was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1963, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order."

[redacted] source advised in December, 1963, that the organization had issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-Foreign born.

[redacted] source advised in March, 1964, that the organization had established a headquarters in Tucker, Georgia, and the day-to-day operations are under the direction of JAMES R. VENABLE, Chairman. [redacted]

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

Characterization of the NKKKK appears in the appendix attached hereto.

On September 6 and on September 8, 1964, respectively, [] sources advised that on September 5, 1964 a public rally sponsored by the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. was held on the property of JAMES R. VENABLE at the foot of Stone Mountain, Georgia, beginning at 8:00 p.m. and concluding at approximately 11:30 p.m. A 25-foot cross was set afire at the beginning of the rally, and the opening speaker was JAMES VENABLE.

VENABLE indicated that the Klan does not endorse any man for President of the United States, but that with the men who are candidates he personally could not see voting for LYNDON B. JOHNSON. VENABLE also indicated that he could not tell people to disobey the new Civil Rights Law but that any person could see it was wrong, and that something should be done about it.

[] source indicated that VENABLE related that 19 state klan organizations were represented at the rally, and that the first two robed, unidentified speakers claimed they represented klan organizations in Florida and Ohio.

The theme of all of the speeches was the growth of the klan and the need to preserve white supremacy.

[] sources were of the opinion that approximately 350-400 robed klansmen were in attendance and both indicated that one of the robed, unidentified speakers was a lady who claimed to represent the klan organization in Florida.

ASCK [] advised the group that he recently attended a meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in Stone Mountain, Ga. He said that the meeting was successful and that a great development had taken place at the meeting of the National Council. He noted that there appeared before the National Council groups of delegates from the states of Calif., Mich., Ariz., and Ohio. The impression was obtained that these people did not belong to any Klan group or Klavern, but were there for the purpose of learning how to organize and set up a Klan organization on a state level. [] advised that Ohio had the largest representation there. [] also stated that these people made it plain that they were worried about the Negro situation in the U. S. One of the spokesmen remarked that his group was of the belief that after the national presidential election in Nov. 1964, if LYNDON JOHNSON is elected, the Negroes will go into the streets again like N. Y., Rochester, and Philadelphia and continue rioting and that the Administration will do nothing about it, and they want to get ready for that day. According to [] the representative from Mich. indicated that Detroit is seething now and expects the Negro to go all out when the elections are over.

In conclusion, [] made no mention of the role of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in regard to the organization of Klan organizations and Klaverns in the several mentioned states. It is presumed, however, that some degree of assistance has been offered.

RACIAL MATTERS

On September 21, 1964, a source stated that a state meeting of the Association of South Carolina Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, (ASCK), was held on September 20, 1964, at West Columbia, South Carolina. Klansmen were there from various Klaverns throughout the state of South Carolina.

At this meeting, ASCK [redacted] of Columbia, South Carolina, talked about the meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan which had been held on September 5 and 6 at Stone Mountain, Georgia. [redacted] said that at the meeting of the National Council of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan there had been present delegates from the states of California, Michigan, Arizona and Ohio. The source obtained from [redacted] the impression that these people did not belong to any present Klan organization, but were there for the purpose of learning how to set up a Klan organization on a state level in their various states. [redacted] made the statement that Ohio had the largest representation there.

According to this source, [redacted] also stated that these people indicated they were worried about the Negro situation in the United States. One of the spokesmen, according to [redacted] remarked that his group was of the opinion that following the national Presidential election in November 1964, if LYNDON JOHNSON is elected, the Negroes will go into the streets and riot as they have done recently in New York City, Rochester, New York, and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and this spokesman indicated he fears the national administration will not do anything about it.

On September 23, 1964, [] source also advised that at state meeting of ASCK on September 20, [] told about the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan meeting in Stone Mountain in early September. According to this source, [] said that at this meeting at Stone Mountain there had been representatives from Ohio and Michigan, and that they are trying to organize "the Klan" in those states. This source did not have any additional details about this matter.

Characterizations of the Association of South Carolina Klans and National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan are attached to this memorandum.

APPENDIX

ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH CAROLINA KLANS
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (ASCK)

A source advised on September 24, 1956, that the Association of South Carolina Klans (ASCK) was organized in the Fall of 1955 and is patterned after the Association of Carolina Klans (ACK). This source said ASCK is a new organization and not a rebirth of ACK, although all high-ranking officials of ASCK had been members of ACK. The source stated announced purposes of this organization are to promote white supremacy and combat integration of the races; however, the use of violence is disavowed.

[] source advised on September 2, 1950, that ACK was composed of groups formerly members of the Association of Georgia Klans (AGK) and although ACK severed all connections with AGK on November 14, 1949, the ideals, purposes and policies of the two organizations remained identical. ACK became defunct after conviction and imprisonment of its highest official and other members in 1952.

[] source advised on April 16, 1962, that ASCK continues to operate for the purpose of promoting white supremacy and combating integration by peaceful means by public speaking and propaganda.

[] source said that ASCK, using the name Majority Citizens League of South Carolina, published a monthly newspaper, "Southland Standard," from August through December, 1961, and dropped it due to lack of financial support.

AGK has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

A confidential source advised on September 16, 1964, that a National Klan Day Rally, sponsored by the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a characterization of which is attached hereto, was held on September 5, 1964, in a cow pasture owned by James R. Venable, Atlanta, Ga., Imperial Wizard of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at the foot of Stone Mountain, Stone Mountain, Ga.

The rally started about 8:15 PM with the burning of a cross about 12 feet high. A prayer was offered to open the rally by an individual believed to be [redacted] of Atlanta, Ga.

GA CHARLES W. MADDOX
After the prayer this individual gave a short talk, followed by speeches by [redacted] Association of Georgia Klans, a characterization of which is attached hereto; JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan; [redacted] United Florida Ku Klux Klan, a characterization of which is attached hereto; an unidentified individual from the Christian Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a characterization of which is attached hereto, and one other unidentified speaker.

All of the talks were similar in nature, relating to segregation and integration generally, criticism of President

Johnson, the Kennedy family, the Communists in the Negro movement, the Civil Rights Act, 1964, and favoring directly or indirectly the election of Barry Goldwater for President of the United States.

This source said there were about 600 people at the rally with a lot of traffic moving and out during the entire rally. The rally ended about 10:00 PM.

This source advised that a national meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan was held at the National Headquarters at Tucker, Ga., on September 6, 1964, starting with breakfast at 8:00 AM.

Breakfast was followed by a roll call of delegates, at which time it was announced there were two delegates from Ohio. A discussion rose as to what Klan or what group they represented.

James R. Venable then announced to the group for the first time that he had incorporated the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and that it had been incorporated since June, 1952. (It has been known or suspected by most of the delegates that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan had been incorporated in Atlanta in 1962 without the consent or knowledge of the delegates.) Venable stated that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., is being operated as a separate Klan, the same as the other Klans enjoying membership in the national group. He explained the national group is the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Association.

The two Ohio delegates were then admitted by the group as delegates of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

The roll call revealed the following delegates were in attendance at the national meeting:

Venable said the "Atlanta Times", a daily newspaper published in Atlanta, Ga., would not accept a paid advertisement for the rally at Stone Mountain on September 5, 1964, but the "Atlanta Journal and Constitution" did accept the ad.

It was announced that the total expenses of the National Klan Day Rally on September 5, 1964, was $208.40. This amount was paid to Venable out of the treasury. The balance left in the treasury after collecting the dues and paying out the $208.40 was $95.44.

The following officers of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan were elected to serve for a period of one year effective this date:

There was a discussion concerning the United Klans of America, Inc., a characterization of which is attached hereto, and it was generally agreed this organization had set their national meeting date at Tuscaloosa, Ala., on September 5-6, 1964, to keep their members from attending the National Klan Day Rally at Stone Mountain, Ga. During the discussion it was pointed out that whenever one of the member Klans of the National Association had a rally and advertised it, the United Klans of America would put an ad in the paper stating the United Klans was not having a rally.

On a motion from the floor, a committee was appointed composed of James R. Venable, [redacted] to see [redacted], United Klans of America, Inc., to ask him why he was trying to run down the members of the national association, and to tell him the United Klans of

APPENDIXNATIONAL KU KLUX KLAN,
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NKKK)

A source advised that on May 22, 1960, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the Klans' unity of effort and activities, to establish a National Fund and a National Secretary and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Hyksos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, on September 2-5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

This source also advised that at a consolidation meeting at Savannah, Georgia, October 23, 1960, it was resolved and passed that in any future meetings of this group the name "Majority Citizens League" was to be used.

[] source advised that at a national klonklave meeting at Texarkana, Texas, on February 11-12, 1961, a motion was carried that there were to be at least six national meetings a year to be held any time from one week to twelve weeks after the last meeting. The time and meeting place were to be decided by the newly elected chairman. [] source also advised that at each meeting a new chairman and acting secretary were to be elected to serve at the next meeting. A national secretary had not been appointed.

[] source advised that at a national meeting on November 11-12, 1961, United Klans of America, Inc. (UK) was invited to meet with NKKK and it was agreed that they would meet together, but there was no talk of consolidation.

[] source further advised that as of the national meeting on May 5-6, 1962, no national fund, headquarters

APPENDIXASSOCIATION OF GEORGIA KLANS (AGK)
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

A source advised on January 11, 1961, that the AGK, KKKK, was organized by [redacted] in the Spring of 1960, with mailing address of [redacted] Bloomingdale, Georgia. This source stated that AGK, KKKK, is a new organization and is not affiliated in any way with the old Association of Georgia Klans which is defunct. It is patterned after the U. S. Klans, has the same general ritual and has the same titles for its klavern officers. Most officers and members are former members of the U. S. Klans. The announced purposes of this organization are to promote white supremacy and to fight integration and Communism by peaceful means, and it is opposed to any type of violence. This source said AGK, KKKK, is affiliated with the National Ku Klux Klan.

b7C

The same source advised on May 9, 1962, that this klan group continues to operate with the same aims and purposes and is localized in the area of Bloomingdale and Savannah, Georgia. It continues to be affiliated with the National Ku Klux Klan.

CHRISTIAN KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (CKKKK)

A source advised on December 17, 1959, that [redacted] Louisville, Kentucky, was rented by [redacted] in July, 1959, for the CKKKK. The source stated that as of December 17, 1959, [redacted] was still being held by [redacted] [redacted] source advised on November 23, 1959, that [redacted] stated that he started the CKKKK in Louisville, Kentucky, with people who were in bad financial condition; however, he felt that after the organization's activity became known, it would attract a higher class of individuals. He indicated at that time an interest in securing more members in the Louisville area.

The same source advised that in May, 1960, the first edition of the "Klan Bulletin" appeared. The source described the "Klan Bulletin" as the official publication of the CKKKK.

The June issue of the "Klan Bulletin" disclosed the address of the CKKKK as Post Office Box 48, Atlanta, Georgia.

[redacted] source advised on January 25, 1961, that the CKKKK was a functioning organization in Atlanta, Georgia, that meetings were held and literature distributed.

[redacted] source advised on June 7, 1961, that the CKKKK was a paper organization and inactive. The source added Stoner collects some dues and uses this money for his personal benefit.

The same source advised on May 14, 1962, that the CKKKK was no longer functioning due to J. B. Stoner's being occupied as an attorney for racists in various southern cities.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UK)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy and segregation of the races.

[redacted] source [redacted] source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, The Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is [redacted] and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

On August 14, 1961, [redacted] source advised that the organization formerly known as United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., would be known in the future as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. [redacted] source said the name was changed by a resolution adopted at the National Klonvocation held July 8, 1961, at Indian Springs, Georgia.

[redacted] source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, a majority of the Klaverns of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN OF OHIO, INC.

On October 7, 1964, the "Columbus Evening Dispatch," a newspaper of general circulation in the Columbus, Ohio, area, contained an article stating that incorporation papers were granted to an Ohio Ku Klux Klan by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

On October 8, 1964, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation determined the following information from a review of the records at the office of the Secretary of State:

On October 5, 1964, the office of Ted W. Brown, Secretary of State, Columbus, Ohio, certified the receipt of the Records of Incorporation and Miscellaneous Filings by W. K. Smith, 3482 Maplegrove Drive, Grove City, Ohio, on behalf of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, Inc. The place designated in the Articles of Incorporation as the principal office is Columbus, Franklin County, Ohio.

The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is former are:

"Said Corporation is formed for the purpose of operating as a realm organization within the State of Ohio operating under and in accordance with the constitution and laws of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and said corporation existing by virtue and authority granted by a charter under the laws of the State of Georgia, said corporation being a corporation organized not for profit.

"Second: To promote patriotism towards our civil government, honorable peace among men and nations, protection for the happiness in the homes of our people,

In addition, Flynn R. Harvey was appointed statutory agent for the Ohio Klan. He signed the form designating him as agent as follows: "Flynn R. Harvey, Grand Dragon".

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is contained in the Appendix.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
(NKKKK)

A source advised that on May 22, 1960, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the Klan's unity of effort and activities to establish a National Fund, and a National Secretary, and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Hyksos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2-5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] source advised in March, 1964, that several meetings of Klan groups were held during the period 1960 to 1963 in an effort to unite the Klan groups under a single leadership.

The organization was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1963, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order."

[redacted] source advised in December, 1963, that the organization had issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-Foreign born.

[redacted] source advised in March, 1964, that the organization had established a headquarters in Tucker, Georgia, and the day-to-day operations are under the direction of JAMES R. VENABLE, Chairman, and [redacted]

II. OFFICERS AND MEMBER KLAN GROUPS

A meeting of the NKKK was held at the National Headquarters at Tucker, Georgia, on September 6, 1964, starting with breakfast at 8:00 a.m. JAMES R. VENABLE, Chairman, announced to the group for the first time that he had incorporated the NKKK and that it had been incorporated since June, 1962. VENABLE stated that the NKKK is being operated as a separate Klan, the same as the other Klans enjoying membership in the National group. He explained the National group is the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Association.

At this meeting, the following Klans were represented:

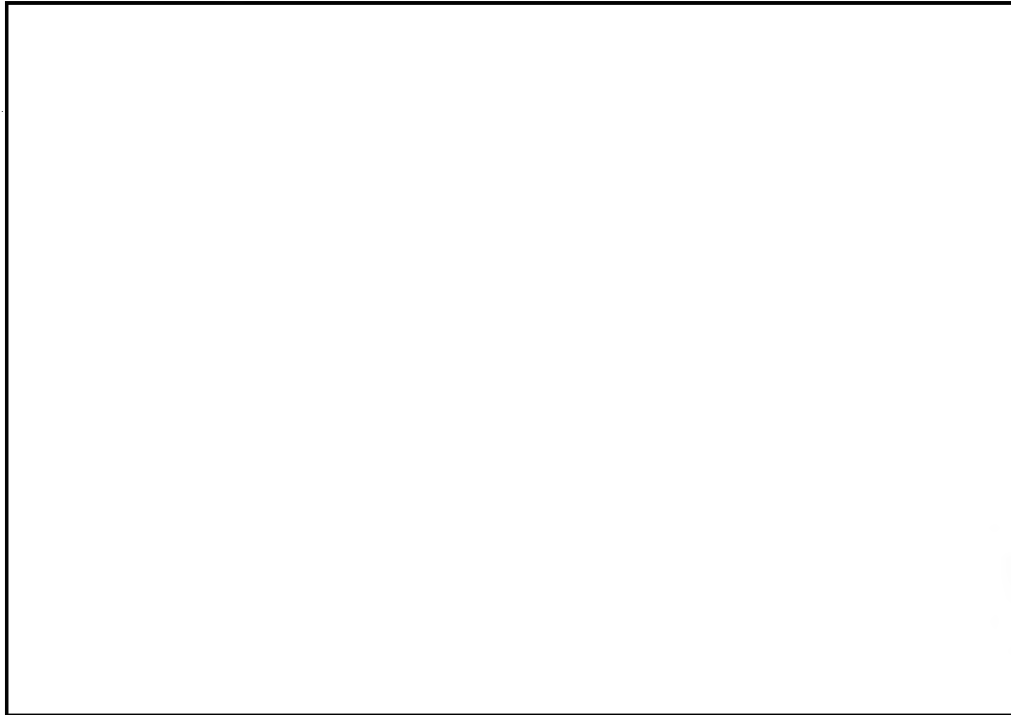

United Florida Ku Klux Klan
Association of South Carolina Klans
Dixie Klans
Association of Georgia Klans
Razorback Klans of Arkansas
Improved U. S. Klans
Ark-La-Tex Klans
Federated Klans

It was reported at a meeting of the NKKK at Tucker, Georgia, on June 7, 1964, by [redacted] of the Association of Georgia Klans, that as of that date after paying JAMES R. VENABLE $396.16 expenses for a previous outing at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on Labor Day weekend in 1963, there is $103.84 in the treasury.

[redacted]
June 10, 1964

IV. FRICITION IN NKKK

Real friction exists between [redacted] NKKK, and JAMES R. VENABLE, Chairman, because of [redacted] drinking too much.

[redacted]
May 13, 1964

On Sunday, May 10, 1964, [redacted] was ejected from the Klan by JIMMY VENABLE. [redacted] allegedly was "too active" in some movement in Tuskegee, or Montgomery, Alabama, headed by some prominent military figure. [redacted] allegedly went to Alabama to represent the Klan and VENABLE gave him $180 for expenses to get together with the military figure to find out what was going on with the Alabama organization, but [redacted] began to get deeply involved in that movement and used VENABLE's name.

[redacted]
May 14, 1964

At a breakfast sponsored by the NKKK on September 6, 1964, at Tucker, Georgia, a discussion was had concerning the United Klans of America, Inc., and it was generally agreed this organization had set their National meeting date at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, on September 5-6, 1964, to keep their members from attending the National Klan Day Rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia. It was also pointed out that whenever one of the member Klans of the National Association had a rally, and advertised, the United Klans of America would put an ad in the paper stating the United Klans was not having a rally. On a motion from the floor, a committee was appointed to see [redacted] United Klans of America, Inc., to ask him why he was trying to run down the members of the National Association, and to tell him the United Klans of America, Inc., would no longer be permitted to be affiliated with the National Association.

[redacted]
September 16, 1964

On June 5 and 6, 1964, the NKKK held a convention at Tucker, Georgia, which was attended by some 16 to 18 Klansmen. The United Klans of America, Inc., was not represented at the meeting. It was urged at the meeting that this Klan be removed as member of the National Klan group, as [redacted], of this group, is not cooperating with the other Klan groups and is trying to encourage members of other Klan groups to join his group. Further than this, [redacted] agreed to an interview by the "Time Magazine" during which interview he gave out names of other Klansmen.

V. PERTINENT MEETINGS

On March 14, 1964, a meeting of the NKKK was held at the Headquarters in Tucker. Twenty people were naturalized, including a fellow from Los Angeles, California, and another from Tupelo, Mississippi. [redacted] of Dixie Klans, Chattanooga, Tennessee, were present with [redacted] presiding over the naturalization ceremony. JAMES VENABLE said that the new inductees would be a nucleus to organize klaverns in their home areas.

VI. RALLY OF SEPTEMBER 5-6, 1964

On September 5, 1964, 26 states were represented at the rally held on that date by the NKKK. Many of the 20 speakers appearing on the program indicated that the Klan resort to whatever means and methods are necessary for the preserving of white supremacy.

September 9, 1964

On September 5, 1964, a public rally sponsored by the NKKK was held on the property of JAMES R. VENABLE at the foot of Stone Mountain beginning at 8:00 p.m. and concluding at approximately 11:30 p.m. A 25-foot cross was set afire and the opening speaker was JAMES R. VENABLE. VENABLE indicated that the Klan does not endorse any man for President of the United States, but that with the men who are candidates, he personally could not see voting for JOHNSON. VENABLE also indicated he could not tell people to disobey the new Civil Rights law, but that any person could see it was wrong, and that something should be done about it. VENABLE related that 19 state Klan organizations were represented at the rally. The theme of all the speeches was the growth of the Klan and the need to preserve white supremacy.

VII. AIMS, OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSE OF THE NKKK

An article appearing in "The Atlanta Journal," a local newspaper for April 10, 1964, entitled, "Klan Using Mails for Call to Arm," reflects that a small Atlanta Ku Klux Klan group operating under one of four different names, is using the mails to disseminate a document urging citizens to arm themselves for war against "black riots" and "our traitor government." The group, headed by Atlanta attorney JAMES R. VENABLE, is pursuing the same anti-Negro, anti-Jew, anti-government goals under the following names: The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.; Defensive Legion of Registered Americans; Committee of One Million Caucasians to March on Congress; Christian Voters and Buyers League.

"The KKK group says in mailed pamphlets that it 'is determined to become once again the dominant political force in our glorious country.'

"The 'defensive legion,' whose slogan is 'We're taking back our country,' urges 'patriots' to buy rifles, shotguns, pistols, walkie-talkies, food supplies for 'war.' It says 'the people...are the government,' and urges defiance against 'tyrannical government.'

"The 'committee of one million' seeks contributions for a big march on the nation's capitol, 40 per cent of which would go to the committee for its costs, and cites a 'list of demands' to be made on Congress. Several of the demands coincide exactly with printed 'demands' of the KKK group.

"The 'voters and buyers league' is an agency for selling records narrated by Wally Butterworth, who is associated with Mr. Venable. The records discuss Negroes, Jews, federal judges, mental health, the Kennedys - subjects relating primarily to racial matters.

"The document of the 'defensive legion' urging citizens to arm themselves in preparation for bloodshed covers six legal-size pages.

"'...Blood will surely flow in the streets,' the document says. 'Let it flow! Let us arm our homes to make sure that Negro-Jew blood flows - not ours.'

"It goes into the nature of race riots: 'There are no battle lines. Defense shooting will be at close range...'

"It recommends shotguns, 12 gauge, with '00 Double Ought' pellets, for close-range shooting, and some high-powered rifles with telescope sights 'for distance shooting.'

"The paper urges 'patriots' to set up a budget, taking money from each paycheck, for arming themselves. 'When the trouble starts,' it says, 'and it will because the blacks are already armed, then you can depend on our traitor government trying to padlock the gun stores. Get your supplies NOW...'

PROPERTY OF THE FBI

This report is loaned to you by the FBI, and neither it nor its contents are to be distributed outside the agency to which loaned.

AT 157-60

"A 'vast stock' of ammunition is recommended, and the author of the document urges the acquisition of .22 caliber weapons for 'women and teen-age kids,' with hollow-nosed bullets that 'go clear through your game, either two-legged or four.'

"Walkie-talkies are urged because 'telephones will be put out of order by rioters...or by subversives... in the 'phone company monopolies,' or by the government itself.'

"The document urges rebellion against 'any police agency' attempting 'to restrict use of arms...'

"'Use it (the weapon) on them to protect your basic freedom,' the document urges. 'If every good citizen is fully armed, no tyrannical government will be big enough to disarm you.'

"The call to arm has been sent through the mails, along with advertisement of records and KKK pamphlets.

"The leaders of the group urging an arming of 'patriots' are also the leaders of the group attempting to organize a march of 'Caucasians' on Washington.

"The slogan of the 'march' committee is the same as that of the 'defensive legion'; 'We're taking back our country.'"

VIII. SUPPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF ONE MILLION CAUCASIANS TO MARCH ON CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1964 (THE COMMITTEE)

A characterization of this organization is included in the appendix of this report.

JAMES R. VENABLE said he would contact [redacted] and ask [redacted] to approach Governor GEORGE WALLACE of Alabama to determine if WALLACE would speak to the group of The Committee after his appearance in Atlanta on July 4, 1964.

Enclosed are eight copies of a letterhead memorandum. Two copies have been designated for U. S. Secret Service, Columbus, Ohio.

On 10/23/64, [redacted]

State House, Secretary of State's Office, State of Ohio, advised SA [redacted] that the charter for NKKK had been revoked 10/22/64. He said there is no legal authority vested in the Secretary of State's Office for revoking a corporate charter once it has been granted. He said the actual purpose for revocation of the charter was not because the NKKK is on the U. S. Attorney General's subversive list but because it was felt the existence of a state-granted charter would encourage the Klan to make the claim it was "state sanctioned" and therefore entirely legitimate. He said the NKKK could probably succeed in securing a mandamus from the Supreme Court of Ohio for reinstatement of the charter but as far as he knows the members of the group have not indicated an intention to do so.

Reference is made to the previous Letterhead Memorandum bearing the same caption, dated October 14, 1964, at Cincinnati, Ohio.

On October 23, 1964, the Columbus Citizen Journal, a newspaper of general circulation in the Columbus, Ohio, area, contained an article on page one which stated that incorporation papers, granted to the Ku Klux Klan on October 5, 1964, were revoked October 22, 1964, by Secretary of State of Ohio, Ted W. Brown. The article further stated the Secretary of State "revoked the Klan's charter Thursday (October 22, 1964) after learning the KKK is on the U. S. Attorney General's subversive list."

ob in
The news article also stated: "William K. Smith, 3482 Maplegrove Drive, a signer of the Klan charter, along with Ohio Grand Dragon Flynn R. Harvey, 418 Josephine Avenue, and Bobby J. Stephens, 2973 Reaver Avenue, promised the Columbus Chapter would continue unhampered without a charter."

On October 23, 1964, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was advised by [redacted] Secretary of State's Office, State House, State of Ohio, that the charter for the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, granted October 5, 1964, had been revoked October 22, 1964. He said [redacted] Columbus, Ohio, [redacted] or the (NKKK), had been officially advised of the revocation of the charter.

Date 11/5/64

The following observations were made of a Klan rally held in a vacant field on the south side of U. S. Highway 80, Princeton, Bossier Parish, Louisiana, located approximately one-half mile east of the Fillmore Service Station:

At 6:35 PM, two cars were parked in the vacant field facing U. S. Highway 80 with the headlights on, and three to five men were seated in front of the cars on the ground. Between 6:35 PM and 7:10 PM, three more cars carrying men in civilian clothing arrived and parked on the southwest side of the building of the vacant field. The men seated on the ground became active handling some items on the ground.

At 7:10 PM, four flares were placed on the south side of the highway near the vacant field. More cars were observed to arrive, and there were twelve to fifteen cars parked in the vacant field.

At 7:40 PM, a white cloth sign ten feet by three feet was hung on the fence just behind the flares, which sign could be read from the highway. The sign had red letters which read "Johnson Jenkins and Humphrey. It takes three to tango." A smaller sign three feet by three feet to the west appeared to be a caricature of President JOHNSON and had words "Me King" on it.

At 7:55 PM a robed and hooded figure in white was observed at the entrance of the vacant field.

At 8:05 PM twenty to twenty-five robed and hooded figures gathered on the vacant field in full view of the highway.

At 8:12 PM five crosses were observed burning in front of the men in the field. Many of the men carried hand torches. The largest cross was eight feet tall with five foot cross piece; the four smaller ones were about four feet tall with four foot cross pieces. While these crosses were burning the hooded figures stood in a semicircle facing the highway, and at this a count could be made and a total of thirty-one men were counted.

At 8:20 PM they broke the semicircle, gathered in a group at the back of the field, after which there was a general milling around. These figures then formed in pairs and marched counter-clockwise within the area of the burning crosses.

At 8:30 PM they formed a single line across the front of the area behind the signs and facing the highway. During this time a Louisiana State Police car had arrived, and at 8:32 PM a trooper was observed to leave the police car and talk to one of the robed figures.

At 8:40 PM the trooper had returned to his car but did not leave. The robed figures then began to mill around in the wire fence enclosed field, which was about ninety feet wide by 150 feet deep. It was noted this field is in a sparsely settled area but plainly visible from the highway.

It was observed that among the robed figures were five red robes, the rest being white robes.

At 8:45 PM they added fuel to the large cross.

At 8:55 PM they started moving to the rear of the field, and two red robed figures started removing the signs from the fence. The robed figures then moved to the front of the field at 9:00 PM where a photographer started taking group pictures.

At 9:05 they were observed holding up their signs and the photographer photographed them in this position, standing in a semicircle.

At 9:15 PM they started breaking up, at which time two state police cars and one sheriff's car were parked in front of the field with officers observing the activities.

At 9:25 PM they were observed departing in their automobiles, and by 9:30 PM they all appeared to have departed.

ASSOCIATION OF ARKANSAS KLANS
OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (AAK)

A source advised on April 22, 1959, as follows:

AAK was formed on April 21, 1959, at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, for the purpose of promoting white supremacy and segregation of the races, but violence was disavowed. Leaders of the AAK were previously members of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (OKKKK). [redacted] [redacted] of OKKKK for the State of Arkansas, was carried over as [redacted] of the new organization, AAK.

A source advised that on August 11, 1960, [redacted] [redacted] disavowed violence. [redacted] source advised in January, 1963, that the ne [redacted] disavowed violence and that [redacted] of the AAK. [redacted] source advised on December 15, 1963, there had been no change in the program and objectives of the AAK. Regarding the ASCK, the following is noted:

A source advised on September 24, 1956, that the ASCK was organized in the fall of 1955 and is patterned after the Association of Carolina Klans (ACK). The source stated the ASCK is a new organization and not a re-birth of the ACK, although all high-ranking officials of the ASCK had been members of the ACK. The announced purposes of this organization are to promote white supremacy and to combat integration of races; however, the use of violence is disavowed.

A source advised on September 2, 1950, that the ACK was composed of groups formerly members of the Association of Georgia Klans (AGK), and although the ACK served all connections with the AGK on November 14, 1949, the ideals, purposes and policies of the two organizations remained identical. The ACK became defunct after conviction and imprisonment of its highest official and other members in 1952.

The AGK has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Reference is made to a letterhead memorandum of the New Orleans Office of the FBI dated October 27, 1964, pertaining to a proposed rally of captioned organization to be held October 29, 1964, at Fillmore, Louisiana.

On the evening of October 29, 1964, the following observations were made by Special Agents of the FBI in the vicinity of a field on the south side of U. S. Highway 80, Princeton, Bossier Parish, Louisiana:

At 6:35 PM, two cars were parked in the vacant field facing U. S. Highway 80 with the headlights on, and three to five men were seated in front of the cars on the ground.

Between 6:35 PM and 7:10 PM, three more cars carrying men in civilian clothing arrived and parked on the southwest side of the building on the vacant field. The men seated on the ground became active handling some items on the ground.

At 7:10 PM, four flares were placed on the south side of the highway near the vacant field. More cars were observed to arrive, and there were twelve to fifteen cars parked in the vacant field.

At 7:40 PM, a white cloth sign ten feet by three feet was hung on the fence just behind the flares, which sign could be read from the highway. The sign had red letters which read "Johnson Jenkins and Humphrey. It takes three to tango." A smaller sign three feet by three feet to the west appeared to be a caricature of President Johnson and had words "Me King" on it.

At 7:55 PM, a robed and hooded figure in white was observed at the entrance of the vacant field.

Reurlet 11/16/64, which included a characterization of the recently formed National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio.

Paragraph four of characterization stated that the charter granted this organization by the State of Ohio was revoked because "the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan organization was on the U. S. Attorney General's subversive list."

As you are aware, the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has not been designated by the U. S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450. You should promptly determine the exact reason for this charter being revoked by the State of Ohio and resubmit a characterization for approval. If your investigation determines that the wording used in your characterization is correct, you should add a qualifying paragraph, indicating that the Ku Klux Klan and not the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Re: Let 10/14/64.

Authority is granted to interview James E. Venable, National Chairman of Regional Wing of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, (NKKK) to indicate to him that he is being used by other Klan leaders and in anticipation the interview will have a neutralizing effect on his activities.

Inasmuch as Venable is a practicing attorney and he has been described as psychotic, this interview should be conducted in a public area away from his residence and employment, and while he is alone. Two Agents experienced in racial investigations should be utilized and if deemed advisable, the interview should be observed by a third Agent. Advise the Bureau of the results of this interview promptly upon its completion and consider follow-up counterintelligence recommendations.

Before the Bureau can authorize you to bring pressure to cause cancellation of the lease of the headquarters of the NKKK at Tucker, Georgia, it will be necessary for you to advise in detail the nature of the action you desire to take and the identities of any individuals you intend to contact together with pertinent comments regarding their discretion.

Similarly before the Bureau can authorize you to alert appropriate officials regarding violations of fire and safety laws at NKKK headquarters, it will be necessary for you to advise the means by which you intend to alert the officials and to furnish assurances that they will not reveal the Bureau's interest.

SUBJECT: UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to memorandum Rosen to Belmont, same caption as above, that Drew Pearson was to be in North Carolina, on 10-20-64 and this was of interest to the Klan.

Charlotte racial informant advised on 9-30-64, that there had been no additional discussion by the members of the Raleigh, North Carolina, klavern of captioned organization concerning Drew Pearson's appearance at Goldsboro and Greenville, North Carolina, on 10-12-64 and 10-20-64.

By way of background information was previously received that at a meeting of the above klavern, the Klan members discussed Pearson's appearance in North Carolina and a statement was made that they would wait and see what happens to Pearson on 10-20-64, prior to their taking any action concerning an article which appeared in Pearson's column which indicated he had a "plant" in the Klan at Atlanta, Georgia. By referenced memorandum it was approved that no dissemination be made at that time of the information concerning the Klan's interest in Pearson's appearance at North Carolina. It was felt that if this information came to the attention of Pearson, he might include it in one of his columns thereby jeopardizing the informant; however, approval was granted for dissemination to local authorities at a later date.

The Klan has not had any additional discussions concerning Pearson's scheduled arrival in North Carolina, and sufficient time has elapsed to protect the security of the information, therefore, we are notifying local authorities in Greenville, and Goldsboro, North Carolina, that several weeks ago members of captioned organization discussed the fact that Pearson was planning to be in Goldsboro. We are advising them that the Klansmen did not make any positive statements concerning what action they might take in connection with Pearson's appearance but the implication was that the Klansmen might take some action.

RE: KU KLUX KLAN

W
WLW-TV carried a program on the evening of June 28, 1964, which showed the burning of a cross by the Ku Klux Klan.

Harold A. Leonard, Reporter, WLW-TV, 140 West Ninth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised Special Agents of the FBI on June 29, 1964, that he and Eugene Neuber, Photographer, WLW-TV attended the burning of a cross by the KKK on June 28, 1964, and they were allowed to photograph this burning. Leonard stated he counted fifteen men at this meeting, 14 of whom were wearing white hoods and one man was wearing a red hood. The leader of the group told Leonard that about 100 men had been in attendance at this meeting of the KKK.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised Special Agents of the FBI on July 26, 1964, that 11 members of a newly formed KKK organization with headquarters in Cincinnati, Ohio, were accepted as members of the National organization of the KKK at National headquarters of the KKK, Chattanooga, Tennessee, on July 26, 1964. This new organization was also accepted into the KKK.

The August 7, 1964, issue of the "Cincinnati Enquirer," a daily newspaper published in Cincinnati, Ohio, contained an article on page one which was captioned "KU KLUX KLAN LEADER HELD UNDER OLD LAW."

DATE 8-19-88 BY SP8/sgj/etk

On January 13, 1965, a confidential source of the New Orleans Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation with whom contact has been too infrequent to evaluate, advised there is an underground cellar which has a door which is padlocked located about one-fourth mile off Highway 71, approximately four and one-tenth mile south of Coushatta, Louisiana. The distance was checked from the intersection of U. S. Highways 71 and 84 at the south edge of Coushatta. A large oak tree can be seen from the road as well as smaller pine trees in the area of the oak tree. There is an open field not in cultivation for some distance from the road before wooded area sets in. The cellar is reportedly to be a few steps, probably 15, to the left of the oak tree upon reaching it from Highway 71. Source claims that machine guns, rifles, shotguns, ammunition, and dynamite have been seen in the cellar. Source is of the opinion that this is on the property of [redacted] Coushatta, Louisiana, who he described as [redacted] of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

On January 11, 1965, a confidential source of the New Orleans Division of the FBI with whom contact has been too infrequent to evaluate, advised that [redacted] Center, Texas, has a farm on which he resides and on it are two barns. The barn located farthest from the dwelling house has one end floored, boarded up and padlocked, and in this he keeps machine guns, shotguns, rifles, and ammunition as well as dynamite. Source described Singletary as being active in the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is set forth on the attached page.

Re Savannah airtel and letterhead memorandum, 1/29/65, with copies to below listed offices, pertaining to a recently held national meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK).

Included in the information furnished by Savannah informant, [redacted] are the following points to which recipient offices should be particularly alert.

1. According to Klan officials, the next meeting of the NKKKK will be held in May (1965).

2. A motion was passed to the effect that 200 copies of important Klan documents, including the constitution and bylaws, be printed and be on hand at the national office for Klan members.

3. Considerable discussion was held pertaining to a merger of Klans into one organization having one Imperial Wizard. Concerning a merger it was indicated that some Klan officials might call meetings of the leaders of various groups to discuss this matter.

Recipient offices should remain most vigilant for any information pertaining to the above and keep the Bureau currently advised.

NATIONAL MEETING,
NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.,
TUCKER, GEORGIA,
JANUARY 23-24, 1965

A confidential source advised, on January 27, 1965, that a national meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a characterization of which is attached hereto as an appendix, was held at the headquarters of this organization at Tucker, Georgia, on January 23 and 24, 1965.

A dinner was held at the headquarters, beginning at 7:30 P.M., on January 23, and the actual meeting was opened with a prayer at 8:30 P.M., on January 23, 1965.

At the Saturday night meeting, various klan leaders spoke generally about the klan activities in their areas and criticized the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for infiltrating the klan. The general theme was that the Negroes had their organizations, and the white people were entitled to theirs without the FBI intruding.

[redacted] and the United Klans of America, Inc., a characterization of which is attached hereto as an appendix, were criticized for permitting the "Saturday Evening Post," a nationally circulated magazine, to print their recent article about the klan.

The Southern Baptist Convention was criticized, for some of the books they were distributing, as being Communist inspired. The names of James Baldwin and

Martin Luther King, specifically, were mentioned, and the only book specifically mentioned was "First Next Time."

The Southern Baptist Convention is an organization of Baptist Churches, with headquarters in Nashville, Tennessee, whose members are Baptist Churches throughout the world.

The meeting was adjourned about 10:45 P.M., until breakfast at 7:30 A.M., on January 24, 1965.

After breakfast, the regular meeting on January 24, 1965, began at 9:03 A.M., with a [REDACTED].

b6

A motion was made and passed that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan meet only three times a year, in January, May, and in September on the Labor Day weekend.

A motion was also made and passed that Chairman James R. Venable and [REDACTED], of Louisiana, organize the next meeting in May in accordance with the constitution and by-laws of the organization.

A motion was made and passed that [REDACTED] of Louisiana, be appointed [REDACTED]. This chair had not been filled at the previous election.

Several delegates present suggested that the original constitution and by-laws of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a characterization of which is attached hereto, be used by the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and a motion was made and passed that two hundred copies, each, of important klan documents, such as the constitution and by-laws, initiation of officers, and such, be printed to have on hand at the national office to give to delegates and members.

A motion was made and passed that, at the Saturday meetings, each klan group represented will be limited to one speaker, and that speaker will be limited to ten minutes. The secretary would have the authority to call the speaker down if he went over the ten minutes. Also included in this motion was the elimination of speeches during the business meetings on Sundays.

There was considerable discussion about each member klan group giving up their individual identity and merging into one klan organization, with one Imperial Wizard and one Grand Dragon for each state. Nothing was resolved, and it was decided to carry this discussion further at the next meeting. It was indicated that some of the klan leaders might call meetings of the leaders of the various groups to discuss a possible merger into one group.

A motion was made and passed that the minutes be kept for only one year and then destroyed.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:45 P.M., on January 24, 1965.

The delegates in attendance and the klans represented were as follows:

ORIGINAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
(ARKANSAS - LOUISIANA) (OKKKK)

A source advised on November 7, 1960, that according to the Exalted Cyclops of the Texarkana, Arkansas, Klavern of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (OKKKK), a meeting was held in Texarkana, Arkansas, on November 5, 1960, and six men from Shreveport, Louisiana, joined the OKKKK and those six were to form a klavern in Shreveport.

The same source advised that on December 1, 1960, [redacted] of Shreveport, Louisiana, was in Texarkana, Arkansas, and had a letter from the Imperial Grand Dragon of the OKKKK establishing Bristol as Grand Dragon in Texarkana and Shreveport, Louisiana.

On January 21, 1961 [redacted] source obtained from Bristol a current document bearing the seal which read: "Original Knights. Ku Klux Klan, USA, Imperial Seal, [redacted] 1866."

[redacted] source advised on October 18, 1961, that the aims of the organization are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation.

APPENDIXUNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UK)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy and segregation of the races.

[] source and [] source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, The Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is [] and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

SUBJECT: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
RACIAL MATTERS

James R. Venable, National Chairman of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., recently indicated his pleasure over the prospect of an investigation of the Klan by the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). It is Venable's belief that the publicity resulting from such an investigation "would give the Klan the shot in the arm that it needs"

Wide publicity has followed the proposal of Congressman Charles L. Weltner (Democrat, Georgia), member of the HCUA, to investigate the Ku Klux Klan. While the former HCUA Chairman, the late Congressman Francis Walter, declared in 1961 that his committee should not investigate the Ku Klux Klan because it had "not engaged in any activity on behalf of a foreign power," no such comments have been made current committee members.

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, headquartered in Tucker, Georgia, is one of the smallest of the fourteen active Klan organizations in the United States. It is among the most active groups in urging a unification of the various Klans.

RECOMMENDATION:

The above information pertaining to Venable's desire for a Klan investigation be disseminated to a representative of the HCUA through the office of Assistant Director DeLoach.

Reurist dated 2/19/65, which advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) group in Coushatta, Louisiana, may soon split from this Klan to form an independent organization. In addition, several splits have occurred within the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (OKKKK), with some of the members supporting various factions and in some instances actually defecting from the state organization.

You should insure that continuous efforts are made to stay on top of this matter and keep the Bureau currently advised. Particular emphasis should be placed on obtaining all available data pertaining to former members of the OKKKK "operating independently."

Pertinent information should be furnished the Bureau, in form suitable for dissemination with copies directed to appropriate Bufiles.

NOTE:

Within the past few months, information obtained by New Orleans indicated dissatisfaction on the part of Klans in the NKKKK and OKKKK. NO should stay on top of the apparent dissatisfaction among Klansmen in Louisiana.
